

Southern California Development Forum Presents...

Tuesday, March 11, 7:00am-9:00am

Considering International Expansion?

Building a Global Practice: International Expansion Opportunities

This year we are pleased to feature Ferdinando Guerra, International Economist of the Kyser Center for Economic Research at the LAEDC.

Ferdinando is the principal author of LAEDC's "Growing Together" country reports, which highlights the ties between emerging markets and Southern California. He will be presenting key information on which emerging markets offer the best potential for your business, focusing on key markets, specific development opportunities, risks, as well as short-term and long-term potential.

Come join us for a topical discussion and the opportunity to meet Mr. Guerra!
