A New Revolution for Student Housing?

Insights into the future of student residential communities

Tuesday, November 10, 2020

1:00pm-2:15pm

Virtual Town Hall via Zoom

All money raised will benefit our chosen philanthropies - Homeboy Industries and 2nd Call

Between the pandemic, social justice, equity, affordability and sustainability many forces are influencing the future of purpose-built student housing. This conversation will delve into what is happening in the Southern California market, what influences will shape the programming and design of new student housing, how universities will navigate the future, and what will be done to address aging campus housing. Comprised of a variety of viewpoints from university, developer, operator and advisors - this discussion will cover a breadth of topics and insights to help attendees understand the changing landscape.
