A transportation discussion by three of the brightest minds in southern California whose jobs are to imagine, strategize, and design 'practical innovation' to solve our transportation issues.

Moderating the session, Ashley Hand was brought in at the direction of LA Mayor Garcetti to develop a modern and fast changing mobility and transportation strategy for the City of Los Angeles.

Our two speakers, Joshua Schank and Dirk Ahlborn are well known for their innovation prowess.

Dirk Ahlborn, cofounder and CEO of Jumpstarter (crowdsourcing technology) is also CEO of Hyperloop Transportation Technologies, Inc. Hyperloop is a conceptual high-speed transportation system put forward by entrepreneur Elon Musk, incorporating reduced-pressure tubes in which pressurized capsules ride on an air cushion driven by linear induction motors and air compressors.

Joshua Schank was recruited by LA Metro's CEO Phil Washington as the first Chief Innovation Officer for the authority from his position as President of the Eno Center for Transportation.
